

It Could Happen To You

Dinah Washington

Hide your heart from sight
Lock your dreams at night
'Cause it could happen to you

Don't count stars
Or you might stumble
For someone will drop a sigh,
And down down down, down you tumble

So keep an eye on spring
Run when church bells ring
'Cause it could happen to you

All I did was wonder
How your arms would be
Yes something happened to me