

Don't Pretend You Didn't Know

Dinosaur Jr.

Waiting all the time
All the people all the time
Waiting as I do
Don't pretend you didn't know
I know that there's no end
I know I'll see you again

Waiting on the line
All the people thinking why
Waiting not to shoot
I got off, but is it her?
I know I'm not alone
I know I'm not alone

Calling all the time
(You thought you'd spend your mind)
Feeling back
Your edges gettin' deeper and deeper
Running for a sign
(I'm back to change and file)
And I ran to see if she's asleep
And she's a keeper

Waiting as I do
Don't pretend 'cause I don't know
Waiting, not today
Not the way I feel you say
I know it's far from home
I know I'm not alone

Crying all the time
(Discharge is a sign)
Came on as if that look is gonna last the endless night
I'm on the line
(Don't let me unwind)
No I'm not gonna love, I caught you past
Again your love is fine

Waiting on the shelf
I don't need it but it helps
Waiting isn't fair
I'd explain but you just stare
I know I gotta know
I know you hear this song
Waiting, waiting, waiting
Waiting, waiting, waiting
