Puke + Cry

Dinosaur Jr.

Try and believe, I thought I'd show you
The way tomorrow, please
Just peek at the ground
I been achin' just to go to Wherever your head's at
Just please bring it down

Things I'd like to show you
Cause you don't even know you
Do you, girl?
I need to feel your angle
Cause things don't wanna mangle
Answer me, girl

Take your pick, you pick the bark off
Stopped you and we need you back
To turn things around
Things above and it's not far off
That everyone will puke and cry
Please come down

Come on down, come on down
Come on down
Come on down, come on down
Come on down

Things I'd like to show you
Cause you don't even know you
Do you, girl?
You sift through all your feelings
Not the one who's feeling It all, girl
It's creeping over your palm
Now can you keep it that calm
Time to wake, girl
I need to feel your angle
Cause things don't wanna mangle
Answer me girl

Don't do it, give in this time
Because without it things will start goin' down
I try to stop you cause I know why
You been smilin' lately, dancin' around

Come on down, come on down
Come on down
Come on down, come on down
Come on down
Come on down, come on down
Come on down

There's things I'd like to show you
Cause you don't even know you
Do you, girl?
There's things you gotta do here
Each little thing too near
Let 'em go, girl
You sift through all your feelings

You're not the one who's feeling It all, girl
It's all so big and twisted
Please come help me fix it
Snap out of it, girl

Come on down, come on down
Come on down
Come on down, come on down
Come on down
Come on down, come on down
Come on down
Come on down, come on down
Come on down
