

The Wagon

Dinosaur Jr.

There's a way I feel right now, wish you'd help me, don't know how.
We're all nuts, so who helps who?
Some help when no one's got a clue.

Baby, why don't we?
Baby, why don't we?

There's a place I'd like to go,
when you get there, then I'll know.
There's a place I know you've been,
here's a wagon, get on it.

Baby, why don't we?
Baby, why don't we?

Baby, why don't we?
Baby, why don't we?
Why don't we?

You won't see me.
You won't see me.

There you are, and here I stand,
tryin' to make you feel my hand.

You won't see me.
You won't see me.

I ring the doorbell in your mind,
but it's locked from the outside.

You won't see me.
You won't see me.

You don't live there anyway,
but I knock on it all day.

You won't see me.
You won't see me.

There's a place I go,
but you're not there
and I'm supposed to know
how to get to where
you're gonna be,
but you don't even know,
so I'm flakin' while you're shakin' it with every stump you find.
Without a mind, without a spine,
what is it that you wanna find?

There's a place I go,
but you're not there
and I'm supposed to know
how to get to where
you're gonna be,

but you don't even know,
so I'm flalin' while you're sailin' off
without a course in mind.
Without a mind, without a dock,
what is it that you wanna find?

There's a place I'd like to go,
when you get there, then I'll know.
There's a place I know you've been,
here's a wagon, get on it.

Baby, why don't we?
Baby, why don't we?
Why don't we?

You won't see me.
You won't see me.

There you are, and here I stand,
tryin' to make you feel my hand.

You won't see me.
You won't see me.

I ring the doorbell in your mind,
but it's locked from the outside.

You won't see me.
You won't see me.

You don't live there anyway,
but I knock on it all day.

You won't see me.
You won't see me.
