

Calling out I'm deep in doubt I'll meet you
Calling out ends always with a stare
I couldn't give you less of what I mean to
I'll pretend but I don't see you there

I wanna know
I wanna go
I'm all alone
I wanna know

Replace a friend I'm overwhelmed I need to
The fear is good you understood it wrong
A box is overflowing then I see you
The fear is that I can't be friends for long

I wanna know
I wanna go
I'm all alone
I wanna know

I know it, I know it for sure
I'll blow it, I know, yeah it's her
Did I show you a clump, it's a blur
I'll know it, I'll know it

I wanna know
I wanna go
I'm all alone
I wanna know

Calling out give me something to cling to Call and take you back and you know where
Call your friends it all depends on me too
Call me back, I'll get on track, I swear

I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
