Hanging from the cobwebs in you mind
It looks like a long, long way to fall
No one ever told me life was kind
I guess I never heard it, never heard it all

Living in a world of make believe I can hide behind what's real But wearing your emotions on your sleeve And they all know what you feel

And here it comes again Straight through the heart Straight through the heart

Oh, never tell a secret with your eyes It's the eyes that let you down Tell a little truth with many lies It's the only way I've found

Oh here it comes again Straight through the heart Straight through the heart

Shout to the wind How can you hurt me this way Oh once it begins It looks like it's coming to stay

Hanging from the cobwebs in your mind
It looks like a long, long way to fall
No one ever told me life was kind
I Guess I never heard it, never heard it all, no!

But here it comes again Straight through the heart Straight through the heart Straight through the heart

Here it comes again Straight through the heart In the middle of the heart Now don't stand still, they'll get you Right through your heart

And here it comes, here it comes again Straight through the heart
