

Be Aware

Dionne Warwick

When the sun is warm where you are
And it's comfortable and safe where you are Well it's not exactly that way
All over

And
Somewhere in the world
Someone is cold, be aware.
And while you're feeling young
Someone is old, be aware.
And while your stomach is full
Somewhere in this world
Someone is hungry
when there is so much should anyone be hungry?

When there's laughter all around me and my family embraces surround me
If I seem to be forgetful
Remind me

That
Somewhere in the world
People are weak, be aware.
And while you speak your mind
Others can't speak, be aware.
And while your children sleep
Somewhere in this world
The child is homeless
When we have so much
Should any child be homeless?
Homeless?

No, not even one child!
Be aware...
