

Cry On Me

Dionne Warwick

Whenever you pace the hall
And sleep toward the wall
It's clear to me something's wrong
But you keep it locked inside
Like it's a crime to reveal
All the pain you feel
But when things don't turn out as planned
You know that you can

Cry on me
No one else will see
You'll be no less of a man
Don't be afraid to take my hand
And cry on me
Let your tears run free
It's all right to cry on me

You've given me wealth untold
A fortune in gold
But having your love means so much more
There is nothing left to prove
'Cause I'm into you, rain or shine
I'll never leave your side
And if the world should break your heart
Don't fall apart, just

Cry on me
No one else will see
You'll be no less of a man
Don't be afraid to take my hand
And cry on me
Let your tears run free
It's all right to cry on me

Open your heart
I'm not a stranger
Don't shut me out
When there is no danger

Cry on me
No one else will see
You'll be no less of a man
Don't be afraid to take my hand
And cry on me
Let your tears run free
It's all right to cry on me

Cry on me
No one else will see
You'll be no less of a man
Don't be afraid to take my hand
And cry on me
Let your tears run free
