

Getting In My Way

Dionne Warwick

Back to scratch again
Nothing left of what we had then
Waiting for the strength to try again

Back to go again
Knowing there's nothing I've known
Not like them
Nothing left to do
But try again

But still you keep on getting in my way
Your invasion of ray mind
Driving any chance away
Why can't I leave the past behind

Back to start again
Longing for something like what we had then
Please let me go
So I can try again

But still you keep on getting in my way
Undermining all my schemes
I can't go a single day
Without you coming around to haunt my dreams

And still you keep on getting in my way
Blowing smoke from yesterday
When will you let me go
To begin again

And still you keep on getting in my way
Blowing smoke from yesterday
When will you let me go
To begin again
Begin again
