

How Can I Tell Him

Dionne Warwick

How can I tell him, how can I tell him
I got to be moving on
Can't seem to say it
But how can I hide it

Whatever we had is gone
He still says he needs me
That he'll never leave me
But he knows it's not the same
How can I hurt him
But doesn't it hurt him
To keep on with his game

No use pretending
It's all over
No happy ending
It's all over
Can't go on avoiding the suffering in his eyes
Can't go on protecting him with lies
No more lies

He's holding me near him
He's planning our future
But my mind is miles away
It's wrong to deceive him
It's wrong not to leave him
Gets more painful the longer I stay
I want to stick by him
I want to still love him
But love's not a matter of choice
How can I tell him
I got to tell him
But it's like I lost my voice

No use pretending
It's all over
No happy ending
It's all over
Can't go on avoiding the suffering in his eyes
Can't go on protecting him with lies
No more lies

How can I hurt him
How can I tell him
Got to be moving on
Can't seem to say it
Whatever we had is gone
Tell me how can I tell him
How can I tell him
Can't seem to hide it
Got to keep moving on
Got to be moving on
Got to keep moving on
Got to be moving on, moving on, moving on
I can't hide this hurt inside
Just got to keep on moving on
Can't keep hurting inside

Just ot to keep on moving, moving
How can I tell him
Oh, how can I tell him...