Love at Second Sight

Dionne Warwick

If we learn to pace ourselves It won't seem so dramatic, it won't be so unclear 'Cause if we learn to pace ourselves The ghost up in the attic might just disappear You may not agree but it could happen here

And in the morning I think we're gonna laugh somehow At what we are afraid of now 'Cause in the morning we'll know better than tonight If it's gonna end up love at second sight

And if we learn to trust our hearts And disregard the voices leading us away And we can make a better start We have all the choices, we have all the say And you might not agree but you can't walk away

'Cause in the morning I think we're gonna laugh somehow At what we are afraid of now 'Cause in the morning we'll know better than tonight If it's gonna end up love

Of course we both have our doubts Let me hold you until we find out Though we don't have a clue For we thought it's me and you

In the morning I think we're gonna laugh somehow At what we are afraid of now 'Cause in the morning we'll know better than tonight If it's gonna end up love at second sight Love at second sight
