

Love Doesn't Live Here Anymore

Dionne Warwick

Deep within your eyes the emptiness is clear
That tender lovin' feelin' has vanished with the years
And as we stare across the table now the silence seems to say
It's time for us to pack our dreams and go our separate ways...
Love doesn't live here anymore...
No more, it doesn't live here anymore-ore- ore-ore- ore-ore
Gone are the dreams we shared and
Our world's grown cold and bear now
The time has come to close the door
No darling, darlin' lo-o-o-ove
Love doesn't live here anymore
Late at night I turn to reach for you again
We're trapped within our loneliness, we try hard to pretend
But darlin' time has come between us, it's all so plain to see
We've nothin' left to cling to but love's fading memories...
Love doesn't live here anymore-ore...
No love does not live here anymore - ore- ore- ore- ore- ore-
ore
And now all the dreams we shared now
Our world's grown cold and bear now
The time has come to close the door
No darlin' lo-o-o-o-ove
Love doesn't li-ive here anymore
Let's take our yesterdays and walk away-ay-ay-ay-ay-ay
And though I prepare I know for us to turn and go
It seems there's just no other way...
No other way...
Yes - love doesn't live here anymore...
No-o love... it doesn't live here anymore-ore- ore- ore-ore
Go-one are the dreams we shared now
Our world's grown cold and bear now
The time has come to close the door
No darlin' love..., lo-lo-o-o-ove, lo-o-o-ove, lo-o-o-ove
Love doesn't li-ive here-ere-ere-ere
Any more-ore...
Love... doesn't live here anymore-ore...
