Love Is Still the Answer

Dionne Warwick

Twenty years ago
I would have told you that the world was round
Good and sound
Freedom bound
The future was secure
Now I'm not so sure
It seems like gravity has been reversed
And getting worse
Nothing works
And everybody hurts
Yes there's a trail of tears
Down through the years
Of broken hearts
It's still so hard
To let the sun shine in

Love's the answer No matter what, I swear love is It's still the answer Just like it always was

Such a simple truth Love never changes Or betrays a friend From the start Love was part Of some fantastic plan Some brotherhood of man And now it's down to us We either shine the light Or darkness rules Our children lose We're free to choose our fate To find our way Beyond this veil of tears The sky is clear And every star Stands for a heart That let's the sun shine in

Love's the answer No matter what, I swear love is It's still the answer Just like it always was

Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
It's still the answer
Just like it always was

Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
It's still the answer
Just like it always was

Love's the answer
No matter what, I swear love is
