Once You Hit the Road

Dionne Warwick

You come home with lipstick Stains all over your face Tell me no lies 'cause your friends been calling Seems you've been out on a date What good is home If you can't be true to me One who's been giving your love When times get rough Then you say you need me I gonna fix ya I'll never do it your way

Once you hit the road, oh baby There ain't no, ain't no turning back. Baby, there ain't no, ain't no turning back.

So it's goodbye, and I'll see you later There's nothing for you to say Give up! Don't hang around Now that love is over 'Cause you've been wasting my time How could it last When your heart don't need the Iove that you needed before I feel so bad 'cause I'm not the someone All of your time has been for Is she giving you more?

Once you hit the road, oh baby There ain't no, ain't no turning back. Baby, there ain't no, ain't no turning back.

Once you hit the road, oh baby There ain't no, ain't no turning back. No, baby, there ain't no, ain't no turning back.

Once you hit the road, oh baby There ain't no, ain't no turning back. No, baby, there ain't no, ain't no turning back.
