

Sure Thing

Dionne Warwick

Sure thing
Why tell them what they say isn't true
I just let them think what they want to

People say
There's no sure thing in this world
A sure thing simply doesn't exist
They say you'll never know
Which way a love will go
Lips can forget they've ever been kissed

So I reply, sure thing sure thing
And I smile, and I smile
Why tell them
What they say isn't true
I just let them think what they want to
Oh sure thing, oh, sure thing
There's no sure thing in this world
So sure as my love for you

People say
There's no sure thing in this life
Romance is like a game of roulette
They say don't fight the odds
It's just not in the cards
Love never lasts, on that you can bet

So I reply, sure thing sure thing
And I smile, and I smile
Why tell them
What they say isn't true
I just let them think what they want to
Oh sure thing, oh, sure thing
There's no sure thing in this world
So sure as my love for you
For you

And I reply, sure thing
Sure thing, let them say what they want to
And I reply, sure thing
Sure thing, let them say what they want to

And I reply, sure thing
Sure thing, let them say what they want to
And I reply, sure thing
Sure thing, let them say what they want to