

You and Ice

Diorama

Iceblue shadow
Gliding through the air like wind
Will you follow
Me when I can't find the way

Am I wrong now
To hold onto your promised sun
Am I wrong now
To think ingrained believes can stay

How can I thaw
All the frozen lakes between you and me
Unless you drown
Unless you drown the way I do

Bound for nowhere
Never move until I'm gone
My reflection
Unfold it safely in your arms

Molten diamonds
Crystallized your tears like salt
Still you follow
To live in dreams beyond recall

How can I thaw
All the frozen lakes between you and me
Unless you drown
Unless you drown the way I do

Do you feel alive
Buried deep in ice
You can call my name
With your mellow voice
But why?
