

Clever Sleazoid

Dir En Grey

Wake up, you're dead
Doing meaningless shit over and over
I'm just a third-rated star covered in blood see the prince on his rocking horse his polished face looks so cool
I'm just gonna spill my guts on you

Under the name of Justice
You can't break my soul
Under the name of Justice
Kill yourself
Think, you moron
Fall out of line you cockroach

Right, left, front, and back, it overflows with despair and pain
They say this anger, this emotion, and this passion is all a lie
Wither.. I'm not even trying to justify myself

The dark dark Sunday, the blood stains
You can't save yourself
The dark dark Sunday, the blood stains
One day I will fuck your parents

*This is the last time
Welcome to the garden of destruction

(koe mo denai kurai ni... sonna ima ni hitori to kidzuku)

The night is cold and long
The night sky is deep and wide

The dark, dark Sunday, the blood stains
You can't save yourself
The dark, dark Sunday, the blood stains
One day I will fuck your parents
