Sustain The Untruth

Your deformed self The Inside Mind The deformed red beauty It can still be filled

Yes, it can still

The gentle voice that I arrived at, lead the way as I wandered Burning with the decaing trees in the parade

The right and the left still remain Love it without caring about how it looks

Is it love in the right hand? What's in the left hand?

I am PRETTY

Image The sunset waits My locked-up heart sways back and forth Tomorrow, I am still

In the time of agitation is faint hope Your dirty lies Dir En Grey
