

Angel Of Mercy

Dire Straits

1. Well there's a Peter Pan moon, shepherd's delight
I got the dragon at noon, yes and I won the fight
Now I want my reward, in heaven tonight
Just like you promised
Angel of mercy, you'll come to no harm
Angel of mercy, there's no need for alarm
The knight in his armour, wants a night in your arms
You know he's honest

R: Angel of mercy, angel delight
Give me my reward in heaven tonight
And if I give up my sword won't you give me the right
Sweet angel

2. Well now it's too late for talking we can talk later on
Let the saxophone play us 'til the chorus of dawn
All I need is a little oblivion
And you don't need protection
Well now here come the moonlight, down on your bed
Angel of mercy let your heart rule your head
I don't want your money, I want you instead
Don't need rejection, yeah

R: Oh angel of mercy, angel delight
Give me my reward in heaven tonight
And if I give up my sword won't you give me the right
Angel of mercy give me heaven tonight

*: Well if you cross your heart and spit
And swear upon the grave of your mother
You gotta, get into it
Gotta tell her that I'm more than a lover

R: (2x)
