

Don't Throw It Away

Dirty Vegas

You broke my heart, yeah you tore it in two
Gave one half back and kept the other one for you
So what am I supposed to do?

Pull me in close and then you push me away
And I'm so tired from the games that you play
So what am I supposed to say?

And I'll take you on (I'll take you on)
And I'll take you back
(I'll take you back)

'Cause I'll still be standing by your side
If only you could see me try
You'd see there's one thing I can tell you
There's only one thing I can say

Don't throw it away
Don't throw it away

I shout your name to the heavens above
You wanted more but it's never enough
I become stronger with the truth

So take me on
(So take me on)
And I'll take you back
(I'll take you back)

'Cause I'll still be standing by your side
If only you could see me try
You'd see there's so much I can tell you
You'd see there's so much I could say

There's only so much I can give you
There's only one thing I can say
Don't throw it away
Don't throw it away
