

Crazy

Disciple

Somehow I see even thought I'm blind
Can't remember when I had innocent eyes
Every time I hear your whisper I get lost in the swirl of your twister
Like a movie screen ever before my sight
Playing over and over as you rape my mind
Every time I hear your whisper I get lost in the swirl of your
twister
Raging over me

And I know that you'll never stop
You want it al, you want it all
Yea I know that you'll never stop
You keep violating me

Gotta get you out of my mind
You're making me crazy
I'm taking back my soul
I won't let you control me this time
And make me go crazy
I won't let you take me
Where I'm about to go insane

Somehow I drown in my oxygen Suffocated by the very room I'm in Every time you invade my mind's eye
I get caught in the wake of your riptide
Now I need a psychosurgery
Before I write a straightjacket symphony
Every time you invade my mind's eye
I get caught in the wake of your riptide
Raging over me

And I know that you'll never stop
You want it al, you want it all
Yea I know that you'll never stop
You keep violating me

Gotta get you out of my mind
You're making me crazy
I'm taking back my soul
I won't let you control me this time
And make me go crazy
I won't let you take me
Where I'm about to go insane
