

Go Ahead

Disciple

Here comes your empty talking
Empty words and empty soul
Here comes the smile appearing
Every time you see me fall
Break me

I feel the poison cutting through me
Spreads like a cancer all over me
Could it be that you're so insecure
That you have to curse me?

Go ahead with all you got
Try to break me down
Do you think you can hurt me?
All the pain you inflict will make me stronger

You lie in wait, you analyze
You're looking down on me
You try to take me down
Down to your level but you
Don't change
