

Jeckyl & Hyde

Disciple

My nature's sinful from my birth and I have trouble finding my worth

My mind is filled with evil thoughts and I forget everything that I was taught

I keep on going back to my ways
I live to please myself and stay away
Caught up in pride and selfishness
I will give nothing more and nothing less

Inside my heart I open up and let Him in Inside my heart I find His love and that there is

THE OTHER SIDE OF ME

It seems I fall and get back in line
I know I can't make up the wasted time
My words lash out and kill my prey
And then I can't take back the words I say
