

Only You

Disciple

I will live and for You only

You were the only one that I could turn to
You were the only one that could ever calm my sea
That separated me from what You knew I could be
Only You

And through it all
I'm Yours alone

I will live and die for You only
Only You
I will die to live for You only

You will be the one I will call by name
Even when I find myself on either side of pain
You will be the reason for the breath I breathe
Only You

Take this burning heart that burns for You
Make it what You want
Break it, mend it, it is Yours alone
For You I will live and die
