

Unstoppable

Disciple

Now it's time to rise, time to fight
Time to run like you've never run in your life
It's the moment of your life, the reason why
All the blood, the sweat and the tears have fallen down

You can't be stopped
You will survive
You can't give up
So what you gonna do about it?
You're unstoppable
You're unstoppable

You feel it in your lungs, here it comes
Second wind like a slingshot catapult over the edge
I'm on top, ahead, below, behind
The fortress inside
There's nothing in this world to take you down

You can't be stopped
You will survive
You can't give up
So what you gonna do about it
You're unstoppable
You're unstoppable

One by one they will fall
One by one they will fall
And there's nothing they can do about it!

You're unstoppable
