Enter the night
With steps faster than before
Like a boxer prepared before a fight
They don't want to know that we are alive

Enter the night
Clenching fists with the dawn
Not giving up without a fight
They don't want to know that we are alive

Open up your arms
For what ever comes

Enter the night
The wind is colder than before
It wants to cut us down to size
And they don't want to know that we're alive

Enter the nigh
Aim to even up the score
We'll never follow their design
Cause they don't want to know that we're alive

Enter the night
Moves more decisive than before
Like a boxer prepared before a fight
The don't want to know that we are alive
