

Hologram

Disco Ensemble

I was shaking like a plastic palm in a winter's storm
In retreat will be lost.
Don't be sorry if I let you down, if I forget your name,
I've forgotten people before.

You're a woman and I'm a hologram,
Come here and kiss me, come here and kiss me.

'Cause it's you and nobody else,
It's you and nobody else I want to be alive with, tonight.

Spend my time in this sketchy court and vending towels,
In retreat will be lost.
Reach my hands to catch you, reach my hands two times to me,
We're yours.

You're a woman, you're a woman,
Come here and kiss me, come here and kiss me.

'Cause it's you and nobody else, you and nobody else,
You and nobody else I want to be alive with.
You and nobody else, you and nobody else,
You and nobody else I want to be alive with, tonight.

It's you and nobody else, you and nobody else,
You and nobody else I want to be alive with.
You and nobody else, you and nobody else,
You and nobody else I want to be alive with, tonight.
Tonight, tonight, tonight.
