

Masquerade

Disco Ensemble

Meet you at the windmill
When the air goes blue
It's getting hard to stand still
Locust dancing shoes
(24:00) secret venue at sight
(24:00) youth against the sunrise
So after this night...

Take seven aspirins
And call me in the morning

Slapdash workday
Turns in to twilight zone
White Russian stagedive
Labour stress outblown
Masquerade
For the ashgray skin
Temporary one night fling

Take the first rounds
Everybody's here till the final whistle
Take the first drinks
Everybody's here till the final dance

Marauders lurk in the dark corners
Sleepwalkers and nightclawlers
So let this map guide you safely home
