

Semi Eternal Flame / Undo

Disco Ensemble

Welcome to the town called null
Where the scissors don't cut and the knives are dull
Yeah, the knives are dull
There's a rainbow upside down over tenements build on promises, promises
Promises, promises

Just don't blow out the semi-eternal flame
Burning brightly, burning brightly
Don't blow out the semi-eternal flame
Maybe it's everlasting
Just don't blow out the semi-eternal flame
Burning brightly, burning brightly

Say now can you smell adventure?
Sucking butane cans at the railroad park, at the railroad park
We should go hear the old man speak
Clap our hands and stomp our feet for the promises
Promises, promises

Just don't blow out the semi-eternal flame
Burning brightly, burning brightly
Don't blow out the semi-eternal flame
Maybe it's everlasting
Just don't blow out the semi-eternal flame
Burning brightly, burning brightly

[Undo]

They wanna talk to you just because you're pretty Yeah, they fall for you in less than a minute
I wish you wiped away all of them one at the time
I wish you wiped away everyone you left behind

All they wanna know is how you're getting home tonight
Guessing what's your name and just not getting it right

I wanna talk to you just because you're pretty
Yeah, I fall for you, if only for a minute
Just don't wipe me away (for a second I was really there)
Just don't wipe me away

I doubled up the drinks, but the courage never came my way
Your perfect face just hovers all over the place
Yeah, when I'm trying to say well I don't really have a clue
Just don't regret the things you can't undo
Undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, yeah
The things you can't undo
Undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, undo, yeah

Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
Just don't wipe me away
