

Bitter Song

Discoballs

Bitter song is playing, bitter song Bitter song that sets me on you and your bitter smile Its just rained on my rainy mind better not think it's right I'll be screaming roundly into night so i Could catch some light

If I were that brave I'd better not think it's right but i was so mesmerized and drowned myself in your eyes than I've dropped away and figured out all that might I won't cry for yesterday cause feeling it's just right

I fell in love so awfully and left my mind up there but im driffted apart i'd better not tink it's right it all seems so faithfully
it all seems so gorgeously

when i see that satellite my favourite satellite it's not start just satellite my dear, i was right dark red, i let on it's just satellite's face up there but i'm glad, i swear it shines only for me
