

Everybody Everybody

Discount

Everybody, everybody, is watching everybody waiting around.
I'm walking to your house. I'm making this trip alone, passing the crowd.

And I say, I think it's a beautiful day.

This place is a charming place if there's such a thing anyway.
the sky, the sun, the earth, the street.

This afternoon seems too perfect.

There's nothing that I want today, nothing I want today,
but this day.

But this day.
