

7 Stitches

Disembodied

Seven scars of sacrelige
Seven sins of passion.
Seven circles of sacrement.
Seven lies carved into stone
Seven laws to seal it.
Seven cracks to break it.
Seven years i've taken it.
That's several years too long.

You will not be forgiven
With an easy confession
You will not be forgiven
You must be taught your lesson.

Seven tries to see the light
Seven times i saw the worst part.
Seven words i can never forget
When 7 stitches line my heart

You will not be forgiven
With an easy confession
You will not be forgiven
You must be taught your fking lesson.
You, you will be taught your lesson

There is no truth in truth
When god has laid his plan before us.
There are no lies within his eyes
When god inflicts his wrath upon us

Cause there's only pleasure in pain NOW.
When 7 stitches line my heart.
