

* I remember it completely, and yet i can't recall any sunrise before it.

I watched the whole magnificents of the dawn for the last times as if it where the first.

And then I said farewell to sunlight and set out to become, what I became. *

Down down down

God three times in me

More than useful

Bring me down where i

Deserve to be

The fear in your eyes (4x)

Like seeing your fate unfold before you

But nothing, nothing can save me from your vampiric love

Drink the blood

Sink your teeth into me

For the first and last time

Do you like

The pain it brings?

The fear in your eyes

Like seeing your fate unfold

Before you.
