

Splendid Horror

Dismal Euphony

To these pale spectres dwelling in the blackness of my sins I behold her swirling tongue floating in my swart lake
I can almost touch her limbs

Cloaked beneath her woes
I found my nothingness withered among the pity
It Was Dead

Splendid horror, splendid horror
Splendid horror, splendid horror

The blood-red water drives me into ecstasy I scream of pleasure as I crawl down to her

Even though they fainted there is really nothing to fear!!
