

No Effect

Dismantled

I wake up everyday and it feels like death
I'm sure that you can all relate
But while you think it's tragic?
I think it's great!
I'm getting farther than all of you combined

And I'll pretend
There's nothing out there
And no, my words have no effect
I'm just so different!
Nothing applies to me
You can't fill me up

And if I'm wrong
Then I am faceless
And if I'm right
Then I belong
But there is no difference
Nothing applies to me
These are the best days of my life

I am the second coming of nothing at all
I predict things that never come true anyway
And it'll never happen for me like it does for you
I'll just work myself to death and that'll be the end

You know, I wish I could stop
Wish I could stop
I wish I could stop it all

And I'll pretend
There's nothing out there
And no, my words have no effect
I'm just so different!
Nothing applies to me
You can't fill me up

And if I'm wrong
Then I am faceless
And if I'm right
Then I belong
But there is no difference
Nothing applies to me
These are the best days of my life
These are the best days of my life
These are the best days of my life
