

Misanthropic

Dismember

Since the dawn of time it has reigned supreme it's running through our veins a primal legacy

Deep within a blackened heart

The surge of raw aggression rages deep inside
unavoidable instinct
waiting to be free
live for vengeance
revel in violence
in the heat of conflict hatred takes control

Embedded in our genes hate lay hidden
blood is the trigger
to the acts of the forbidden

Suppressing the rage within denying the inbred fire instead of using it right they kill their dark desires enforcing the ways
ignorance of evil
the only true emotion
restrained in moral chains
