

Sword of Light

Dismember

OI am the light and the savior, I am the one who brings death t o mankind
The bringer of silence, the source of life, hammer of justice,
sword of light
Conflict will end uneasy peace, humanity's finest destructive a rt
Winds of war tear the world apart Nations will crumble and new will arise, rising from the ashes
"the one" emerge
Written in blood history reapeats itself, again and again in a ravenous purge
There is no peace has ever been, man killing man Strong defeat the weak, we're always at war Sword of light, burning bright, hand of doom, death to you all Sword of light, might makes right, dwan of damnation, awaits us all Shattered existence, survivors struggle to rebuild Dance of death, burning world drowned in flames
