

For Tonight You're Only Here to Know

The Distillers

I really want you to sigh,
Never in tune just sigh,
I really want you to sigh,
Never in tune just sigh.
Just tonight I would, I would lay here for you
Just tonight I would, I would sink here for you
Just tonight I would, I would slum here for you
Just tonight I would, I would die.
I really want you to sigh,
Never in tune just sigh,
I really want you to sigh,
Never in tune just sigh.
Where am, am I, in the hallway small,
There's a red light, and a black sore.
Away I say, away I say, away I say, away.
You'll follow me till the end, till the end,
You'll swallow me till there is nothing left
You'll follow me till the end, till the end,
You'll swallow me till there's nothing left.
I really want you to sigh,
Never in tune just sigh,
I really want you to sigh,
Never in tune just sigh
