Dehumanized

Disturbed

Lost in slumber, a threat to no one Weak and humbled in my disgrace Sweet departure is what I long for Careless moments to comfort me

Dead philosophy

If I offer you my soul Will you carry me away? I cannot be the only one To be dehumanized again Left behind

Too determined, to be forgotten Nothing left to enrapture me Hard and silent but softly breaking No beloved to comfort me

Ooh, dead philosophy

If I offer you my soul Will you carry me away? I cannot be the only one To be dehumanized again Left behind

Feel the determination Built into my mind

You're never gonna find me I'll wipe the world away Your face it will remind me Just how much I have to leave

If I offer you my soul Will you carry me away? I cannot be the only one To be dehumanized again

Tell, if I offer you my soul Will you carry me away? I cannot be the only one To be dehumanized again

Left behind Into my mind
