

Enslaved by your beauty
Enslaved by your touch
Enslaved by this feeling
That tempts me too much
So pick your poison
And choose your passion's price
Forever drowning
In these endless escapes

So let go and fly
As we let go and die

When you love the one you hate
That sadist is your soul mate
Soul mate
Is your soul mate
When you love the one you hate
That sadist is your soul mate
Soul mate
Is your soul mate

Trapped in this torture
Used to these tears
Forever are our games
The drama's all the same (the same)
Hiding a double life
You deny your death

So let go and fly
As we let go and die

When you love the one you hate
That sadist is your soul mate
Soul mate
Is your soul mate

When you love (when you love) the one you hate
That sadist (that sadist) is your soul mate (soul mate)
When you love the one you hate
When you love (when you love) the one you hate
That sadist (that sadist) is your soul mate (soul mate)
When you love the one you hate
Your soul, soul mate
