

Hate You To Love You

Diva Destruction

I can feel the tables turning
Twisting faster as I care now
I can feel you running from me
Because I sense myself in you

Here we go, here we go now again
Till the bitter, till the bitter, bitter end
Hate you to love you, hate you to care
Hate you to love you and you'll
Turn again, and love me more
Hate you and you'll want me back now
Love you and you'll run from me now
But I'm the same, still stuck in this game

Love is cruel and love's unkind
Love is twisted in this love of mine
When I run is when you fall
In this masochistic love, in this match
In this match made in hell
But I still, but I still can't say good bye

Hate me to love me, hate me to care
Hate me to love me, and I'll turn again
And I'll want you back
