

Screaming Inside

Diva Destruction

Tried to steal my strength
A rage is overdue For all breaking our deals that you signed

With all red flags down crossing all my lines Not without a fight when you're back for more Breaking out it's the last stand Screaming inside Screaming so long for all you have done Can't bury it again with friends like you Screaming Inside
Screaming so long for Retribution
