

Disappoint: Surprise

Divided By Friday

I've been reaching for your hand,
But you're never there to help me
You'll never understand,
Nothings what it seems
Yeah it's been a long time tell me but I think I got this right
Girl you do me wrong but do we really have to fight
Oh though you had me fooled,
You always knew I'd come back to you, always knew I'd come back

Tell me does it hurt when you think of me,
Do your memories sting when you're remembering
Yeah you took my world and tore it in two
And I'm so disappointed but I'm not surprised
And I sing I hope you're happy

And I could be bitter but it would be better to leave it all be hind
So I'll watch my mouth while you make up your mind
And baby if we don't talk about it then maybe things will chang e
Don't talk about it then maybe things will change
Baby if we talk talk about it, it will never be the same
So I'll wait until you decide

Tell me does it hurt when you think of me,
Do your memories sting when you're remembering
Yeah you took my world and tore it in two
And I'm so disappointed but I'm not surprised
And I sing I hope you're happy

Forgiving things yeah I'm sure I'll soon
Forget
(For it'll be)
Good so
Keep on moving don't look back
Keep believing in memories that
I gave you my everything
I gave you my everything
But you gave me nothing I could show
You never could get enough and I never did seem to let you go b ut if we believe then we could gain some clarity then maybe we could sing "we're complete"

Tell me does it hurt when you think of me,
Do your memories sting when you're remembering
Yeah you took my world and tore it in two
And I'm so disappointed but I'm not surprised

And I sing I hope you're happy
