

Free Tonight

Divided By Friday

Living with your eyes close, wondering which way to go.
Drowning in the darkness, cause you're too afraid to glow.
Reaching out for something,
but you're always coming back with nothing.
Can't you feel the sunrise against your skin?
Illuminate the night; let the light in.

Open up your eyes.
I want to show you.
It's your time to.

Tell me, can you tell me,
how does it feel to finally live your life?
Right now, do it right now.
Let down your guard, hands up, be free tonight.

You were too afraid to start it,
but now that you finally got it you know.
Yeah, you know.
Stomp a cadence on the pavement
as you're marching to the beat of your heart.
Can you

tell me, can you tell me,
how does it feel to finally live your life?
Right now, do it right now.
Let down your guard, hands up, be free tonight.

Guard down, hands up, be free tonight.

Hands up, put your hands up.
Let me hear it, guard down, hands up, be free tonight.
Hands up, put your hands up.
Let me see it. Everybody lose all control tonight.

Tell me, can you tell me,
how does it feel to finally live your life?
Right now, do it right now.
Let down your guard, hands up, be free tonight.
