

Civilian Stripes

Divine Fits

Go and do what you want you know you can always leave when the curtain drops and you get tired, tired, tired

Out in the wind passed in to the sky the try and the number but you know that you never get it right right right

So it good, is it really good quiet life early in the night you ain't walking in your new civilian stripes

So is it goo, is it really good, ohh is it good, is it really good quiet life you were looking fine when you went walking in your new civilian stripes
you ain't walking in your new civilian stripes
