

Tell Me

Divine

Ooh baby tell me why
You could look me in the eye
Swear on us that you're not seeing someone else
The way you hold me strange
Know your lips don't feel the same
You got an attitude I know there's someone new
Baby don't lie
You know I get all sensitive and hurt inside
Darling tell me now
If you want my loving
Got to show me what you're all about

Tell me now what you want
Is it me or someone new
Tell me now what you gonna do
I can't take no more, 'cause I'm bout through
Tell me now what you want
Is it me or someone new
Tell me now what you gonna do

I can't take no more, 'cause I'm 'bout through
You cannot hide the feeling you feel inside
Cause you were the one who let me know that true love is genuine
Why are you using me can't give up abusing me
If you don't want me don't pretend we're meant to be
Baby, don't lie
You know I get all sensitive and hurt inside
Darling, tell me now
If you want my loving
Got to show me what you're all about

Tell me now what you want
Is it me or someone new
Tell me now what you gonna do
I can't take no more, 'cause I'm bout through
Tell me now what you want
Is it me or someone new
Tell me now what you gonna do

Hand that tell me you're unsure
Lips that I can't kiss no more
Eyes that cut me up inside
Can't take no more can't take no more
Tell me why I ache inside
Visions of you in my mind
Kissing, hugging, hurt so tight
Can't take no more, can't take no more

Tell me now what you want
Is it me or someone new
Tell me now what you gonna do
I can't take no more, 'cause I'm bout through
Tell me now what you want
Is it me or someone new
Tell me now what you gonna do
