United As One

I'm looking for a better world People crying out for help Need your love to do things right You know I want to follow you And show the world freedom Death will be no more

Time to move on Together we're strong We believe in the son Everyone's invited Faith, hope and love And his heavenly grace We're united as one Yeah, the door is open

Sometimes it's hard to see the way When the world is crashing down Keep the faith and don't give up He will wipe away your tears Hear your desperate prayers He's been through it all Divinefire
