Sleeping Beauty

Still waiting for my ship to come in Still looking for the right kinda friend There are things inside things that can't be denied What am I waiting for

A sleeping beauty, so helpless Unlock my fantasy And while i slept You came in And gave to me your key oh your key

Things that we did again and again Things that I thought would never never end There are things inside things that can't be denied What am I waiting for

A sleeping beauty, I confess a perfect design And while i slept You came in And took this heart of mine A sleeping beauty, so helpless Unlock my fantasy And while i slept You came in And gave to me your key oh your key

I looked around I saw your face Then I kissed you in a very nice place What was I looking for Still waiting, still waiting, still waiting Waiting waiting for you Ooh baby I'm still rootin' for you honey

You showed me how to give This selfish heart of mine

Oh a sleeping beauty, so helpless Unlock my fantasy And while i slept You came in And gave to me your key oh your key A sleeping beauty, so helpless Unlock my fantasy And while i slept You came in And gave to me your key oh your key Still waiting, waiting, waiting
