

See Daylight

Dizmas

i can see your eyes how they're watching (me) how you burn with passion for what it's worth you have my undivided attention don't stop till you get it right yeah don't stop till you see daylight

this is the tension
don't stop till get it right now

can't imagine life without this wonder why i burn with questions my comfort is missing but my soul is in motion
this is the tension

comfort is our favorite invention comfort is our only intention comfort is our favorite invention ask me some questions and i'll tell you some lies
