Imagine if i showed u 1 day i was leavin da hood, Wud u call me a sell out, wud u say its all good? Wud u folow if u cud?

Or wud u jus tell me get da hell out?

And imagine if i showed u dat id found another way of gettin do ugh wiv out doin dirt,
Lets blurt, wud u love me 4 givin u sum hope?
Or ressent me coz ur pride got hurt?

Imagine if we never grew up on a council estate,
An was country manor raised, wiv a spoon in our mouth,
Wud we still b makin fuss about da east an da south?
Wud we shiver at da robberys, murder an da crack?
An thank god dat we didn hav 2 live like dat,
Jus an image on da tv as were comftarbly sat,
Sippin wine room lit by da summer sunshine,
Not a worry in da world as we cash will e chat?
Oblivious 2 how we wud b livin on da flipside,
No experience, not a clue about a ruff ride,
No harrassment, no boy dem on our back side,
Dat'd b amazin still!

But i no u wonder wud it make u any less real? Wats da current spot ur standin in, offerin, If u had a better offer wud u go 4 da kill? Snap out of ur day dream, how do u feel?

Does it all seem worthwhile 4 ya? Try an put it in perspective, Retrospective of ur profile an ur honour, Do u wana hang about or are u a goner?

Come along fink fast, decision time,

Uve been livin in da grime, don u wana climb?

Da ladder of life, da wall of enlightenment,

Or are u lookin 4 da hype an excitement,

Coz deres so much drama in da LDN,

Its kinda hard tryin 2 find legal money 2 spend,

Generation, genocide look possible,

Da rate at which we drew up 4 da sken,

An pretend, dat we dont no who da real enemy is,

Who shud we hold responsible, instead we offend,

A couple square metres of pavement in da endz,

Wat wud we acchieve my friends?
